

People's Pledge of Glamorgannwg Indigenous People

I, _____, pledge to uphold the Constitution of Glamorgannwg by:

1. living with a balance of compassion and wisdom
2. understanding that our actions and words have consequences and treating others as we would wish ourselves to be treated
3. acknowledging our own power by living our own truth and rejecting actions, words and deeds which could jeopardise our power
4. honouring the self-determination of other beings, societies, communities and nations
5. conducting all business, commerce and trade for the benefit and betterment of humanity in a fair and honest manner, carried out for an equal exchange of a mutually beneficial currency between parties, which could be anything of their choosing that offers value to all concerned, as long as the exchange is in alignment with Natural Law and causes no harm or loss to another
6. living in accordance with Natural Law, consciously considering the choices we make and the impact they will have on all of Nature, including ourselves
7. sharing resources, solutions, skills, experiences, talents, information and knowledge in order to assist and support each other in developing creative, dynamic and self-sufficient communities, nations and fellowships
8. settling disagreements between individuals, families, groups or communities via mediation, with arbitration only taking place when mediation fails, handling matters fairly and in accordance with Natural Law
9. valuing everyone's voices, regardless of their views, affiliations or identity, recognising that diverse variety of individuals creates the most vibrant and powerful communities
10. affirming to love not hate, build not destroy, heal not harm
